CLUB RULES CONCERNING MOBILE PHONES

Mobile phones may not, under any circumstances, be used by visiting players or spectators when playing at a club which forbids their use.

According to the rules of some clubs any person, whether a member or non-member, may be immediately asked to leave the premises. If, during a match, therefore, a visiting player infringes a club's rules regarding mobile phones and is asked to leave the premises, this player is deemed to have forfeited any remaining games in a set and all other unplayed sets.

The LMC expects all players to observe the rules of host clubs. Convenors and Captains should ensure that their players are fully aware of the points made above.
